

Contents

05	Editorial	76	Double Burden of Malnutrition at the Individual Level
08	Glossary	82	From What to How
10	When Biological Systems Meet Food Systems	86	Maximizing the Potential of Multisectoral Nutrition Policies for Double-duty Actions
12	Infograph: Shared drivers of the double burden of malnutrition across the life course	94	BMI and Adiposity in Children
	Food for Thought	98	Addressing Capacity Challenges
14	Addressing the Double Burden of Malnutrition as both Crisis and Opportunity	103	Equipping Chefs with the Language of the Sustainable Development Goals
	Research-Based Evidence	108	Putting Food in Food
18	A Life-course Approach for Influencing Policies to Prevent Childhood Malnutrition	113	How to Get Consumers to Choose Fruits, not Fries
24	The Double Burden of Malnutrition	119	A Children’s Rights Approach to the Double Burden of Malnutrition
29	Consumption of Empty-calorie Snack Foods Raises Cost of Nutritious Diet	125	The Double Food and Environmental Pyramid
40	Essential Nutrient Requirements not Met by Diets High in Staple Foods	130	A New Framework for Public-Private Partnership for Nutrition
49	Breastfeeding		Special Feature
55	Malnutrition among Adolescents in Low- and Middle-income Countries	140	“You Are What Your Mother Ate”
	Perspectives in Nutrition Science	149	The Sizanani Mzansi Marketing Mix
64	Time to Recalibrate Nutrition Improvement Strategy?		The Bigger Picture
72	Eat. Think. Solve.	156	A Day in the Life of Arlette Eulert Checa

Congress Reports

160 EAT Forum 2018

163 The Carotenoids and Retinoid Interaction Group
(CARIG) Conference Meets in Boston

167 Sight and Life Elevator Pitch Contest 2018

Field Reports

172 Nutrient Density as a Dimension of Dietary Quality

177 Preventing Micronutrient Deficiencies Using African Indigenous Vegetables in Kenya and Zambia

182 OBAASIMA

186 What's new

196 Letters to *Sight and Life

200 Reviews & Notices

202 Imprint